✓ Do

1. Cap each expiry at 6 contracts.

Why: Your calmer expiries averaged 4.3 contracts and made +₹34,985 together.

Now 8.6 per expiry → Target 6 or fewer

2. Keep BankNifty size at 4 lots or less.

Why: 4 lots or fewer: +₹49,286. Above 8 lots: -₹35,085.

Now 10.2 lots average → Target 4 lots or fewer

3. Write your exit before you enter, then keep it.

Why: 24 contracts went past −10% and cost −₹1,01,582.

Now 23% of contracts past −10% → Target under 12%

4. Let planned winners reach your exit.

Why: 31 of 52 winners were closed under +10%.

Now 60% of wins under +10% → Target under 45%

5. Stay with what you know best.

Why: Weekly-expiry contracts made +₹63,652; your results are strongest where you trade most often.

Now 4 products traded →
Target fewer, familiar products

× Don't

1. Don't add strikes once an expiry is busy.

Why: On 23 Jun and 30 Jun you spread 18 contracts over 13 strikes each.

Now 13 strikes → Target 3 or fewer

2. Don't size up after a good month.

Why: After May's profit, June size went from 5.9 to 13.0 lots and the month closed at −₹2,686.

Now 13.0 lots in June → Target same size all month

3. Don't hold a losing option past −30%.

Why: 12 contracts went past −30% and cost −₹56,785.

Now 12 contracts → Target 0

4. Don't trade stock options this month.

Why: Wipro options lost −₹14,520 on just 3 contracts.

Now 4 contracts → Target 0

5. Don't treat charges as small.

Why: At ₹255 per contract, charges were 164% of your gross profit.

Now 164% of gross profit → Target under 50%
